

Descendants of John Toliver

Generation 1

1. JOHN² TOLIVER (Unknown¹) was born in 1760 in NC. He died about 1863 in Alleghany County, NC. He married TABITHA HOWELL about 1785 in Probably Montgomery Co., VA, daughter of James Howell and Unknown. She was born in 1765 in VA. She died on May 24, 1845 in Ashe now Alleghany County, NC.

Notes for John Toliver:

Revolutionary War pension application affidavits state that John, Moses, and Jesse were brothers. Jesse was born on the Rappahanock River in Prince William Co., VA. By the time John was born, that area had become Fauquier County. Shortly afterward (he doesn't say when), the family moved to the James River area about 30 miles from Richmond. Information in John's military pension file and that of his brother Jesse indicates that they and their brother Moses, (there may have been two other brothers, Charles and William), came to NC with their father before the Revolutionary War began. The identity of their father has not been definitely proven, but it is likely that his name was either John or William, since those are the only two Toliver males who appear on tax lists of the correct period. Further, about five or six years before the Revolutionary War began (about 1770), the family moved to Surry (later Wilkes) County, NC, east of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The father was still living and was involved in this move, but he is not named in any of the pension records of Jesse or John. Land records show Tollivers buying extensively along the Roaring River, Mulberry Creek, and the Yadkin River between 1778 and 1781. Following the Battle of King's Mountain (1780), the Tolliver brothers and others in the family including their mother (who is not named) moved west of the Blue Ridge to the part of Wilkes that later became Ashe and still later became Alleghany County. There was no mention of the father being involved in the 1780 move. If William Toliver (1730-1774) was the father of Moses, Jesse, John, and some or all of the others, his death in 1774 fits the fact of the absence of the father in 1780. Also, there is a William Toliver on tax lists in Surry County in 1771 and 1772 (Wilkes was formed from Surry in 1777). Of course, to "muddy the waters" a bit, there is also a Dr. John Taliaferro there during the same years.

John did not receive a pension. He applied for and received a Bounty Land Warrant #67685 - 160 acres issued 1855. Most warrants given to NC men were in TN. The following is taken from a letter written in 1930 by E. W. Morgan representing the National Archives to Mrs. Fred Cretney in Leadville, Colorado:

"You are advised that it appears from the Revolutionary War records of this bureau that John Toliver, while residing in Wilkes County, North Carolina, enlisted in the latter part of the war and served fourteen days 'and upwards', as a private in Captain Martin Gambill's company in Colonel Benjamin Cleveland's North Carolina regiment. He was allowed bounty land in full satisfaction for the service rendered, on his application executed June 17, 1856, at which time he was living in Ashe County, North Carolina and was aged ninety-four or ninety-six years. In 1856, Charles H. Toliver and Jesse Toliver testified in the case. They were both at that time residing in Ashe County, North Carolina. No relationship to soldier stated." Bounty Land Warrant 67685 - 160 - 55 - bounty land warrant allowed and executed in June 1856 in Ashe Co., NC.

Note: Charles H. Toliver was John's son and Jesse Toliver was his grandson (son of Charles' sister, Susanna, and Allen Tolliver). Jesse was married to John's granddaughter, Louisa, William's daughter.

A letter written July 10, 1848 to James and Elizabeth Maxwell Toliver from Joseph Maxwell (Lucy's son) says that "Old Uncle John Toliver had lost his sight but was in good health for a man of his age."

On August 29, 1845 John testified to the State of North Carolina that he had witnessed the marriage of Jesse Toliver and Franky Stamper in 1782 and that they had lived together as man and wife about fifty-six years until his death February 7, 1838.

In the DAR Patriot Lookup, John Toliver is listed as John Taliaferro b. 1760. He was a Private. He died in 1863 in NC. No one received a pension. His spouse was Tabitha Howell.

The SAR list him as John Toliver, Private.

National Archives W5012 - In a deposition for the widow of Samuel Johnson on Sept. 20, 1856 in Ashe Co., NC, John Toliver, swore before Justice of the Peace, James Gambill, that he had lived in the county of Wilkes in NC at the time of the War of the Revolution; that Samuel Johnson had been a Captain in the war and that he had known Samuel's father, Jeffrey. He also knew Mary Hammons and believed Samuel and Mary were married after the Battle of King's Mountain, SC (Oct. 7, 1780 - credited with being the turning point of the war in the South) and before he moved with his mother to the west side of the Blue Ridge, now Ashe Co. He also stated that "his two older brothers Jesse Toliver and Moses" lived on the west side of the Blue Ridge and that they had served in the War.

John C. Tolliver, Jr. documented in September 1962 that Tabitha Toliver's grave was on the Homer Rector farm in Alleghany Co., NC. The tombstone gives her name, died May 24th, 1845, 80 years. This Old Toliver Cemetery is located at the northeast corner of Niles Road and Route 221. This is not far from the Virginia line. John owned land from the Virginia line to Niles Road. At the 2006 Tolliver Reunion David Tolliver (son of Paul, Noah B. Drury, James, John b. 1760) told of his visit to the cemetery. It was announced that the cemetery needed to be restored. Donald Tolliver (son of Gus, Link, Melvin, Lytte, John b. 1760) took the lead. He and James Oxford (son of Priseland, Charles, Remington, Lytte, James, John b. 1760) and James' wife, Rosalind, cleaned up the cemetery, dug up the old stones, reset them in concrete bases, installed a chain-link fence, and marble sign over the gate. A military stone was installed for John and a new stone purchased for his wife, Tabitha. Several family members contributed money to this effort. A special Memorial Service/ Grave-Marking Ceremony was organized and led by Joe Harris, President of the NC Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution on October 21, 2006. Joe is a descendant of the Samuel Johnson mentioned above. William T. Tolliver, Jr. (son of William, Marion, Hugh, William, John b. 1760) spoke about John. Lunch was provided by the Jonathan Hunt Chapter of the DAR. Over 80 persons attended, including descendants of four of John's children. SAR members from different Chapters led the Grave-Marking Ceremony. Information concerning this event can be found in the Alleghany News (Sparta, NC), Jefferson Post (Jefferson, NC), and Independence (VA) Declaration. Also in the September 2007 issue of the Common Patriot, edited and published by T. M. Jacobs and the Two If By Sea Publishing, there is an article about John, the Revolutionary War soldier.

Notes for William "Billy" Toliver:

According to historian, Lorene Sturgill, William (Billy) Toliver owned several hundred acres of land north of Sparta on what is now Niles Road. Billy's daughter Louisa, who married her first cousin, Jesse Tolliver (son of Allen and Susan), lived there after Billy died. Louisa and Jesse adopted and raised Louisa Hudson who married John Robert Crouse. The land or part of it is now owned by the Crouse family. Billy and his wife, Elizabeth, are buried in the Crouse Cemetery which is on the property.

Mrs. Theresa Blevins Crouse who lived on the farm when we were there in 1999 said that Billy lived in a log house on the hill behind her home. She pointed out the spot where the ground was uneven in the shape of a house. Part of the foundation is still there. She also said that Billy had a country store/grocery and a still. Stills were not illegal then. One encyclopedia states that "nearly every prosperous man had his whiskey or brandy still." Every month or two Billy would take his wagon and horses and go to either Elkin or North Wilkesboro to trade. He would take goods to sell such as chestnuts, butter, hog meat, honey, wax, lard, and eggs. He would buy supplies such as salt, yarn, pins, needles, tools, crockery ware, ammunition, and cooking utensils. Either trip took 2-3 days. Upon returning he would take his money pouch containing gold up in the woods just east of his house. He would return with an empty pouch. Finally, he had a stroke that affected his throat so he was unable to talk. For years people have dug and searched for the gold, but as far as Theresea knew, no one has ever found it.

Mrs. Crouse also told us that there used to be a Toliver School across the road from Billy's house. We saw a picture of the Toliver School in the Alleghany County history book.

Family Tree DNA reported in May 2003 that the Y-DNA of Eleanor's brother and my husband, William T. Tolliver, Jr. (Hugh's line) match. That is further proof that William and James were both sons of John Toliver.

William Toliver's will (Bk. A,p. 13, Alleghany Co., NC) dated May 29, 1874 mentions wife, Elizabeth; daughter Matilda Hoppers, daughter Malinda Pugh, daughter Lucy Ashley, son Eli Toliver, heirs of daughters Amy Ward and Elizabeth, daughter Caroline Phipps, heirs of son Hugh Toliver, daughter Louisa Toliver, wife of Jesse.

Notes for Elizabeth (Betsy) Long:

Betsy's brother, Samuel Long, was born 1790 in Montgomery Co., VA (became Grayson Co., VA in 1793). The 1810 census lists many "Surface" names.

Betsy was named in her father's will probated in Grayson Co., VA in Feb. 1822. She was given a parcel of land known by the name of the Sawyer place. Also her bed and furniture and saddle.

The DAR Library says that " William Long was born in Augusta Co., VA in 1755. (This part of Augusta Co., VA was sub-divided in 1778 and became Rockingham Co.) He served in battles in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, and Virginia in the American Revolution from March 10, 1777 to Feb. 6, 1781. He was commissioned as a 1st Lieutenant and was promoted to Captain in 1780. He was discharged Feb. 6, 1781." The records also state he was married to Catherine Surface. Betsy's parents are buried in the Family Cemetery at Long's Gap. It is across from their old homeplace which still stands.

Some of Betsy's Long relatives came to Morgan Co., KY about the same time that Hugh came.

Notes for John Toliver:

A DNA test taken by Patrick Tolliver, a descendant of George Toliver, son of John, is our only proof that this John was a son of John Toliver and Tabitha Howell. He was an exact match with 4 other descendants of John Toliver.

There is no written documentation that this John is John and Tabitha's son. It is based on the DNA match. It is possible that John could have had a brother that we do not know about who could have had a son but at this point we do not know of any possible brothers. The DNA does not match the other Tolliver "brothers," only John 1760. Charles, Jesse, William and John 1760 were in NC in 1790. Charles, Jesse, and John were there in 1800. We know all the children of Charles and Jesse.

This John and his first 4 children were consistent in saying they were born in NC. He named a daughter Tabitha.

The 1810 NC census does not list first names, only initials so it is difficult to be sure about who is who. I believe the transcriptions have John and Jesse mixed up. Jesse had more young male children than John so he is the one on page 25 with a young John beside him. John 1760 is on page 24. John Jr. and William would be the sons aged 16-26.

1815 Ashe Co., NC Tax List - William and John Toliver are listed next to each other - no acreage, aged 21-50). Next to them is Enoch Baldwin (375 acres and no poll (over 50 years) and Theophilus Baldwin (no acres and age 21-50). On the same page is John Toliver, Sr. with 1200 acres and no polls (over 50). (This is John b. 1760.)

Notes for Anna Baldwin:

The only proof of Anna Baldwin is the marriage of their daughter, Celia Ann Toliver Smith on May 10, 1891 in Warren Co., IN (Bk. 14, p. 214) to Joseph Cox (Bk. 7 p. 553). She lists her parents as John Toliser (sic) and Anna Baldwin. This comes from the supplemental Marriage Transcript Records for Warren Co., IN. Celia was 72.

Anna's birth date is estimated from her first child being born March 1811.

Hugh was listed as a private in Capt. William Mynheir's 1st Co. A 5th Regiment, Kentucky Infantry, from Dec. 31, 1861-April 30, 1862.

According to Morgan County Deed Book I, pages 273-274, on January 24, 1860, Hugh purchased a 1200 acre farm from James B. Stamper with a series of notes. Hugh's family was listed on the 1860 NC Census. Hugh's daughter Sarah was born in May of 1860 in Alleghany Co., NC (Census) and died in Feb. 1861 so they must have moved to KY in the summer of 1860. According to an article by Helen Price Stacy, "The old house (Hugh's) was built by James (Big Jim) Stamper who later sold it to Green Trimble of Hazel Green. The two-story double log house was a mansion in its day, with twin chimneys that accommodated a fireplace in each of the large rooms. Beside the chimneys at either end of the long house was an outside stairway. At the time of my visit to the house it was called the 'Aunt Em Chaney place.'"

When Hugh came from North Carolina in 1860 he bought property on both sides of Carter Fork of Grassy Creek with a sizeable down payment. About the first of October in 1866, he returned to North Carolina to collect money, probably from land. Upon his return, two men tried to rob him. His daughter, Caroline, escaped with the money, but Hugh was killed. Ellen, his wife, was shot through the hand trying to protect him.

Notes for Nancy Caroline Toliver:

According to a news article written by Helen Price Stacy, Col. Lucien Beckner was injured in a fall from a tree and was taken to the home of Caroline and Andy Amyx. "The Amyxes were both skilled botanists in folk medicine and able nurses. Amyx went into the woods and gathered roots and herbs and Mrs. Amyx boiled them into a medicine together with coal oil and turpentine. The camphor, comfrey roots, oil and turpentine though evil smelling proved good." This was in November 1897. Myrliah Tolliver Ison remembers visiting Aunt Caroline about 1925 along with her sister, Beulah, and her mother, Corda Blevins Tolliver. She remembers because Beulah was put in an enclosed place on the porch and Myrliah was concerned. On the same trip they were riding in a carriage and Myrliah was carrying her mother's purse. She held it outside the carriage and dropped it. Someone caught up with them and asked if they had lost a purse. They gave Corda her purse.

Notes for Craig Burton Toliver:

Court records list Craig as B.C. or Burton Craig. For example, Burton Craig Toliver, Town Marshall of Morehead, April 11, 1885 and B. C. Toliver's Liquor License for the American Hotel in Morehead on June 6, 1887. His tombstone says Craig B. Toliver. His son's name is Burton Craig on his death certificate. Cemetery records where Amanda is buried show that Craig bought the 6 cemetery plots on October 16, 1879. That is when his daughter died.

I believe there were two Ellens because we have 2 birthdates and conflicting information.

The Ellen born in 1884 was the one with Caroline in 1900. There is a Sarah E. Tolliver, cousin, with James Monroe Toliver in 1900. Caroline Amyx's estate names Ellen Maddox as Daniel's daughter. Jewel Thoroughman gives Daniel's daughter's birthday as Feb. 3, 1881. This does not match the one that was with Caroline who married a Whitt.

Also, at the beginning of the settlement of Caroline Tolliver Amyx's estate Daniel is listed with 2 children: Silas and Ellen Tolliver Maddox. When the final settlement of the estate was made and property divided, Daniel Toliver is listed with only one child, Silas. So his Sarah Ellen must have died between July 16, 1928 and Feb. 28, 1929.

Funeral Rites Held For Marion Tolliver At Church July 8

Widely Known Rowan Pioneer and Citizen Died of Heart Failure

Was President of Local Wholesale Firm

County Offices Closed by Proclamation Yesterday Afternoon

Funeral services for Hon. F. Marion Tolliver, 79-year-old Rowan County pioneer and citizen were held from the Methodist church here yesterday afternoon, with interment in the Lee Cemetery. Dr. G. H. Fern officiated at the funeral rites assisted by the Rev. H. L. Moore and the Rev. B. H. Kazee.

Mr. Tolliver was returning by motor from his farm in Fleming county when he slumped in his seat and died of heart trouble a few minutes later before any medical aid could be summoned. He had been in excellent health and his death was unexpected.

He was born in North Carolina, before moving to Elliott county, Kentucky, when a youth. About 40 years ago, Mr. Tolliver came to Rowan county where he farmed. Later he founded the Morehead Wholesale Grocery Company of which he was president until his death. He was one of the county's most widely known citizens.

Mr. Tolliver was a member of the Christian church, but funeral services were not held there because the church was undergoing repairs at this time. He was a Kentucky Colonel on the staff of Governor Ruby Laffoon.

All county offices were closed from one until 4 o'clock by the following proclamation issued by Judge C. E. Jennings:

"Whereas it has come to the attention of the Court that Col. F. M. Tolliver, a distinguished citizen of Morehead with property holdings in Rowan, Elliott, and Fleming counties, passed away at his estate in Fleming county and, in view of the recognition heretofore given him by a former Governor of Kentucky, who commissioned him a Colonel on his official staff because of his successful career in agriculture, stock-raising, and the merchandising business, and upon motion of Hon. W. E. Proctor, county attorney of Rowan county, I, Charles E. Jennings, Judge of the Rowan county court, do proclaim that out of respect to his memory all public offices in the Courthouse shall be closed between the hours of 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. of July 8th, 1936, during the progress of his funeral, and in our tribute we are pleased to remember him as a landmark of Morehead, the promoter of its first wholesale house and bank, a man of civic pride whose large fine home (a veritable mountain mansion) stood where Myrtle's tea room now is, East of Morehead, and we recommend that all upright and ambitious young men emulate his life. This proclamation shall be spread at large upon the order book of this Court and a copy delivered to his surviving sons."

Days of Anger, Days of Tears, by Fred Brown and Juanita Blair, states on page 70: Francis Marion Tolliver, Craig and Floyd's younger brother, became a very successful merchant, and a leader in the Christian Church. After being flooded out in Farmers he moved to Morehead and opened the Wholesale Grocery Company on Railroad Street. He borrowed heavily to start a spoke factory. The factory burned down the night the load of spokes paying off his debt was loaded. Flooded out once, burned out twice, F.M. never gave up. He died well to do, in 1936. The Tolliver Addition of Morehead is constructed on the farm that once belonged to him. Of all the stories that his descendants recall, perhaps the most indicative of his personality is this: Two Morehead business partners, longtime friends, had a major row. Things reached such a low point that they decided the only way to settle their dispute was at gunpoint. They went to their homes and procured pistols. While the mute town watched, they faced off on the streets of Morehead, each determined to take the life of the other. Then F. M. stepped between the pistols. "Are you sure this is what you want to do?" he asked. "Why don't you go home and think about it?" They did, tempers cooled, their friendship- and probably their lives- were saved from ruin. Let history remember the courage of the man."

She died on Jun 26, 1955 in Champaign, Illinois. He married (2) ANNABELLE ?.

Notes for James Calvin "Cal" Tolliver:

Cal was injured in the Tolliver-Martin Feud.

Roscoe Tolliver, son of Lee Andrew Tolliver, told Maxine Tolliver Evans the following: "A few years after the trouble in Rowan county, the Tolliver boys had trouble with the Howards in Elliott county. Tipton, a deputy sheriff of Elliott county, shot and killed G___ Howard while trying to arrest him. The Howards were looking for Tipton to kill him and accused Finley Tolliver of hiding Tipton. Sambo Howard started a row with Calvin and Cate Tolliver, accusing them of harboring Tipton; words passed between them and Calvin and Sambo shot each other down. Calvin was shot in the lung. He went to Ohio and married and had a child but died from the wound. Howard recovered."

According to family papers of Jim Filson, Cal was later shot by Sambo Howard in Elliott Co. The Courier Journal from Oct. 25, 1892, p. 1, reported that "Cal Tolliver was shot in the breast and instantly killed. Wylie Tolliver was shot in the abdomen, and Sam Howard received four balls in the body. Both of the men will die." The Courier Journal from Oct. 26, states that Wyley Tolliver died yesterday. Sam Howard is expected to die also.

Evidently Cal was badly wounded. He must have survived because the records and dates listed were found in Athens County materials.

He died 3 years after marriage in Ohio from a lung infection that resulted from a gun shot wound.

Notes for Charles Ward "Cate" Tolliver:

Cate was gunned down by Alfred Fraley on a Morehead street.

He got his nickname because one of his brothers said upon seeing him for the first time, "Why he looks just like one of old Kates." Old Kate was the family sow who had just had a litter.

He was in the Tolliver War.

Browns Park: Is located in the South East corner of Daggett County, covering three states being those of Utah, Wyoming, and Colorado. Many of the outlaws such as Robert LeRoy Parker, (alias Butch Cassidy) and the Sundance Kid, and other such as Matt Warner and Isom Dart used the Park as a hiding place from the law. Other people included fur traders and trappers, and cattle ranchers. Permanent settlers didn't arrive until the 1870's. Sam Bassett from New York was there as early as 1842 according to his diary. He also wrote that the area saw the first white woman on the date of June 22, 1854 when Warren D. Parsons and his wife Annie arrived. In 1874 Dr. John Parsons the son of Warren and Annie Parsons arrived in Browns Park with his family. He started a Ferry operation on the Green River and was appointed Postmaster of the first Post Office in Browns Park. John Jarvie became the operator of the Ferry, and the Post Office and of Parsons property following the death of Dr. Parsons in 1881. The Parsons cabin was used by the outlaw Matt Warner and by the Chew family. It became known as the oldest building in Browns Park, and was listed on the National Register of Historic Places. It was over a 100 years old when it burned down in 1978. In the late 1870's and early 1880's some of the settlers arriving in Browns Park, most of whom settled in the Utah section included Jimmie Reed and his Indian wife Margaret, they built a cabin on the south side of the Green River. Other settlers were the families of Herb Bassett, who was Sam Bassetts brother, John Jarvie, and Billy Titsworth, Charles Crouse, and Valentine
Hoy and John C. Allen. Sam Bassetts daughter Ann was romantically involved at times with Butch Cassidy. She became known as the Queen of the Cattle Rustlers. She had to appear in court on charges of rustling, but was acquitted of all wrong doing. Her sister Josie was also romantically involved with another member of the Wild Bunch named Elzy Lay.

He was a half brother of Charles Crouse. He came to Brown's Park about 27 years ago. He engaged in ranching and stock raising. Later he moved to Vernal and was twice city marshal. Five years ago he again went to the Park and engaged in the sheep business. He recently sold his sheep. He was the father of 13 children, only four of whom are living: Mrs. S. J. Campbell, Jr. Mrs. Lorenzo Mail, David and Rose. Mr. Tolliver was a genial, good fellow, except when under the influence of liquor, when he was of a quarrelsome nature.
