NOTE: Jane Tolliver 20 and James R. 7/12 listed in Hampton's house in 1850. In the 1860 and 1870 censuses, there is a James listed with a Daniel and Elizabeth McKinney, ages 10 and 20 respectively. This is next door to Nelson Carroll (married to Angeline Harper). On James R. Tolliver and Louisa Harper's marriage return in 1871, Nelson Carroll is listed. A few households away is Jane Tolliver 45, a housekeeper for Stanford Philips. James R. and Louisa Harper Tolliver had 11 children at Hitchens.

Generation 1 (con't)

Ora Tolliver from Ashland, KY told me his dad always said that there was a brother and sister who came to Elkhorn City from the south, maybe NC, GA, AL, or MS.

Notes for Malinda Stewart:

There were 2 Malinda Stewarts about the same age in KY. At first I thought, as did others, that Malinda who married Wade Hampton Tolliver was the daughter of Ralph Stewart. Upon examining the 1850 census records for the children of Ralph and Absolum, I have concluded that Wade's wife was the daughter of Absolum. Tabitha Stewart (Absolum's widow) is in Carter county in 1840 (the year Malinda got married). The Stewarts in Carter county in 1850 are Absolum's children. The other Malinda married Henry Meade in Lawrence county. In 1850 she is a widow and in Lawrence county. Her dad (Ralph) is at #838, sister Nancy is at #839, Malinda is at #840, brother Madison is at #841.

Absolum's son, Johnson, is with Wade and Malinda in 1850. Therefore, I believe Wade's wife was the daughter of Absolum Stewart and not Ralph.

Absolum's son from an earlier marriage, Andrew b. abt. 1795 Tazewell Co., VA m. Rachel Cook b. 1825 daughter of Joel Cook. 1850 Carter Co., KY #362. Brother Charles b. abt. 1812 was also in Carter Co., KY 1850 #361. Aunt Catherine married a William Cook Aug. 15, 1806. He was born June 7, 1784 and died Aug. 10, 1853. Was he Joel's son??? Brother John b. 1805 married Lucinda Evans June 29, 1834 in Lawrence Co., KY. Another book is "The James Stewart Family" by Florence S. Dickerson. The Stewarts, Tollivers, Evans, and Cooks were allied families.

James may have been in the Civil War. See the picture at the end. On the back it had Monro Tolliver. It was made at Chattanooga, TN. This is the only Monroe that I have been able to find who was the right age.

From a letter written by Winnie Tolliver Blankenbeckler: "James Monroe's father, Jim Tolliver died when James Monroe was 10 years old. His mother died when he was 11 years. Both parents died of tuberculosis. Joe Stanley, his maternal grandfather brought four children, Millard, Annie, Nickatie, and James Monroe to Dickenson County, VA, and reared them about four miles from Clintwood, VA.

James Monroe, my father, liked to talk about his family and growing up. He said his grandfather Hampton "Hamp" Tolliver took them to North Carolina for awhile. Uncle Millard came to visit his brother several times when I (Winnie) was small. One time he brought his daughter Mary. He must have not been too far away. He rode a beautiful stallion. My father went to see him when he was ill, just before his death. I don't know where they lived. James Monroe lived at Paw Paw, KY,, when the first five children were born, and at Kelsa, Buchanan County, when the last children were born.

He was a sawmill man, working for W. M. Ritter Lumber Company. He moved when the company moved. He went from Kelsa to Clinchfield, VA, Russell County. From there he moved his family to Kingsport, Tenn to work for Tennessee Eastman Kodak Company. This was in 1926. He lived there for 34 years.

My mother, Mary Francis Rowe was a daughter of Giles Alvin Rowe and Polly Ann Adkins. Polly Ann's parents were Elijah Adkins and Margaret McClanahan. Margaret was the daughter of Colonel William McClanahan who married Polly Blair. This story has been passed down since the Civil War.

"Colonel McClanahan was fighting for the South. He got typhoid fever and came home to recuperate. He was sitting under a shade tree in his yard when one of his soldiers (adeserter) came by and recognized the Colonel. He thought Colonel McClanahan had recognized him, so he shot and killed the Colonel. One of Colonel McClanahan's soldiers pursued the deserter and killed him."

Notes for Mary Ann Stanley:

Mary was a sister to James Stanley.
